

LESSON PLAN

Class : Bachelor of Home Science 5th Sem

Course Name : Traditionally Textiles and Embroideries of India

Course Code : B23-HSC-502

Course Type : CC-B5

Teacher Name : Shabnam Vaid

Month	Topic	Teaching Method
August	- Traditional embroideries of India: list of different embroideries associated with various states of India. - Origin, types, fabric used, motifs, color combinations, stitches and thread used for: Phulkari, Kantha, Chikankari, Chamba, Kashida, Kasuti. - Prepare embroidery samples: Phulkari, Kantha, Chikankari.	Lecture, PPT, Demonstration, Discussion, Practical
September	- Prepare embroidery samples: Chamba, Kashida, Kasuti. - Traditional textiles: list of different textiles associated with various states of India. - Printed textiles – Dabu, Ajrakh (Gujarat). - Painted Textiles – Kalamkari (AP), Madhubani (Bihar). - Resist Dyed textiles – Patola of Gujarat; Leheriya/Bandhani of Rajasthan.	Lecture, PPT, Video, Sample Observation
October	- Woven textiles – Brocade (UP), Kanjivaram (TN), Maheshwari (MP), Chanderi (MP), Mulmul (Dhaka). - Floor coverings – Carpet, rugs and durries. - Sustainable textiles: definition, principles and merits of sustainable fibers (bamboo, banana, nettle and pineapple Silk). - Care labelling of textiles. - Portfolio including different traditional textiles along with their motifs. - Drafting and construction of petticoat and designer blouse.	Lecture, Demonstration, Project Method, Practical
November	- Revision of Units I–IV. - Practical Revision. - Class Test and Viva.	Question–Answer, Discussion, Assessment